

Dave Mood

Dave Mood has over 25 years of experience in the heating, cooling, and plumbing industry. Dave began working with HFI when he graduated from college and is a Vice President of our Construction Division. His primary focus is in projects for K-12 education, Indiana University, healthcare, commercial and correctional facilities.

2008-Present
Vice President & Owner

Harrell-Fish Inc.

- Coordinate and manage all aspects of the construction division
- Lead estimating team within construction
- Oversee project management team

1994-2007
Project Manager

Harrell-Fish Inc.

- Detailed estimating and budgeting
- Project closeout, scheduling, contract negotiation
- Change order management, sales/marketing

Dave Mood

Education/Qualifications

1994 | Purdue University

- B.S Building Construction Management

1999 | University of Texas at Austin

- MCAA Institute for Project Management

2004 | State of Indiana

- Licensed Plumbing Contractor

2011 | Babson College

- MCAA Advanced Leadership Institute

Professional Associations

Current

- Mechanical Contractors Association of America
- Mechanical Contractors Association of Indiana
 - Student Chapter Committee
 - Helped develop the first Mechanical Contractors Association of Indiana Student Chapter at Purdue University - 1993

Past

- Exec Board of Indiana Subcontractors Association

Dave Mood

Community Involvement

- Hendricks County 4-H Complex and Convention Center
- President of the Board

Key Initiatives at HFI

- Helped develop the original “bag and tag” program that eventually led into the development of the HFI Fab Shop development and growth
- Current primary work managing construction at Indiana University Bloomington Regional Academic Health Center
- Became part owner of company in 2008

Personal Information

- Wife: Rhenda
- Children: Tyler, Haley, Riley